

Brains & Eggs

Phillip Jones

Ingredients:

1 small can Rose® Pork Brains

1 egg per person + 1

Salt

Pepper

Oil (vegetable / corn / or Olive), or Bacon Grease, or Lard

Directions for Preparing Pork Brains

Open can of Pork Brains into iron skillet; which was prepared like for scrambled eggs (see below). Pour contents in to frying pan. Stir and cook until dries out, and all liquid disappears and Brains begin to toast slightly. Then pour in eggs as prepared below. And stir following directions below.

Directions for Eggs:

Break eggs place contents of the eggs in bowl, add salt and pepper (more pepper than salt).

Using a fork, break up eggs, stirring until yolk and whites are thoroughly mixed.

Place Iron Skillet on stove eye on medium heat (number 5 - electric stove). Add enough oil or grease to cover bottom of skillet when melted. Pick up skillet and swirl oil / grease around to coat bottom and sides of pan up to about ¼" of sides. Pour out rest of oil out (it's no long needed), allow remaining oil to almost smoke.

Break eggs and pour egg contents in skillet and stir. Keep stirring, until almost all the egg liquid has been cooked, leave a very small amount of the liquid eggs uncooked (you want the eggs not to be dry). Pour in bowl and keep stirring until all egg and Brains are cooked, eggs will continue to cook in the bowl and will cook all of the remaining liquid. (All the liquid may be cooked, but some might remain in liquid form - you can pour off).

Serve with Toast or, Biscuits buttered and with Jam or, with Biscuits and White Gravy.
